2009 Aggie Muster Speaker

Dr. John A. Adams '73

Author of "Softly Call the Muster", "Keepers of the Spirit", and "Aggies at War"

Dr. Adams has participated in over 40 past Muster presentations world-wide, including serving as the 2008 Texas A&M main campus Muster speaker. He currently serves as president and chief executive officer of Enterprise Florida, Inc (EFI—the public-private organization responsible for leading Florida's statewide economic development efforts.

EFI's mission is to diversify Florida's economy and create better-paying jobs for its citizens by supporting, attracting and helping to create businesses in innovative, high-growth industries. The only public-private statewide economic development organization in the nation, EFI targets sectors including clean energy, defense and homeland security, life sciences, aviation and aerospace, information technology, financial and business services. EFI works with a network of state, regional and local economic development organizations to continually improve Florida's business climate, attract foreign direct investment, and to ensure Florida's global competitiveness.

During his career, Dr. Adams has provided leadership and expertise in economic development and international trade for several commercial banking and financial institutions. With a focus on strategic planning and regional marketing, he has made strides in fostering cross-border partnerships among local, state and international economic development organizations while pursuing workforce training, legislative advocacy and site selection inventory initiatives. He was a captain in the United States Air Force.

In addition to his career highlights, Dr.

Call for Muster Silent Auction Items

Do you have anything you would like to donate for our Muster Silent Auction? All donations are TAX-DEDUCTIBLE and documentation is supplied. The most popular items last year were:

- Tickets to sporting events, theatre, ballet
- Autographed memorabilia
 - Aggie athletes are an extra big hit!
- Discounts, coupons or gift certificates
 - Spas, haircuts, dining, etc.
- Free nights at luxury accommodations
 - Time-share weekend, mountain cabin, etc.

Auction items on display at the 2008 Muster.

Items less than $10 in value may be bundled together for auction purposes. Please contact Sarah Sebeck at fundraising-chair@DenverAggies.com if you are interested in donating to the silent auction. Proceeds from the auction benefit our scholarship fund, which allows Colorado high school students to attend A&M.

Marie D'Englere, Scott Horton, Adrienne Tuck, and Chris Busch at 2008 Muster

Maureen Wright, Wildlife and Fisheries Science, had a fantastic first semester on campus where she earned a 4.0 GPR. She lives on campus in Briggs Hall in the Quad. Her favorite activities are football games and meeting new people. Maureen's favorite Aggie tradition is saying "Howdy". For off-campus activities, she enjoys the Wildlife Society wild game cookout, spring break, church and spending time with friends. She is looking forward to Aggie baseball this spring.

Brandon Sims, a Business Management major, also had a great first semester where he earned a 3.5 GPR. This is a great accomplishment considering it was also his first semester experiencing life as a Fish in the Texas A&M Corps of Cadets. Brandon is also on a Marine ROTC contract. His favorite activities are running and working out and his favorite tradition is Step-Off at football games. Brandon's favorite off campus activity is eating Mexican food at Coco-Loco.

Hilary Nickerson, currently a General Studies major, will be transferring to Biomedical Engineering next fall when she becomes a sophomore. Hilary had a great first semester

Membership Update

It is hard to believe that our 2008-2009 Membership year has ended. We are thrilled that our club maintained 90% of our active memberships from 2007-2008 and are looking forward to growing the club during the 2009-2010 membership year. The Denver A&M Club email distribution now reaches 712 Aggies in the Denver Metro Area.

Meet the 2008-09 Denver A&M Scholarship Recipients

too. She earned a 3.0 GPR. Hilary lives on the north side of campus in Neeley Hall. Her favorite activity is hanging out with friends in the dorm doing absolutely nothing. Her favorite traditions are all sporting events and saying "Howdy". Dancing and shopping are her favorite off-campus activities.

Best wishes for a great spring semester to all of our scholarship recipients.

Easter Egg Hunt

The Easter celebration was held at Amy and Ian Miller's house again in 2008 and it was an outstanding success. Over 300 eggs were stuffed and hidden and 13 kids did such an excellent job of finding the eggs that they even found one hidden at last year's Easter event. Food included donuts, granola bars, water, juice, coffee, fruit, mini bagels and cream cheese. The event started at 10 am and the hunters were released just after 11 am. Amy and her daughter created three golden tickets which were hidden inside selected eggs. These tickets, when found, earned the hunter a special prize. Prizes included a gorgeous fun-filled Easter baskets and chocolate golden eggs. After the hunt, the kids enjoyed some indoor craft activities as it was sunny but very chilly outside. The kids decorated two dimensional foam Easter eggs and constructed bookmarks with foam chicks and lambs glued to colored tongue depressors. The DAMC Easter celebration is shaping up to be an annual family event tradition!

New Mexico Game Trip

The Aggie football team took on the University of New Mexico Lobos in Albuquerque, New Mexico during the 2008 season. About 20 DAMC members rented a couple of vans and took a trip to New Mexico to support the team. The before game activity was a stop at Rudy's Country Store for some Texas BBQ. The game was enjoyed by all in attendance. It was a win and we were there to see it! Afterward, the group hit the streets of downtown Albuquerque to soak up some local culture. Overall, the group had a wonderful time.

Summer Picnic and Freshmen Send-off

Fifty Aggies, incoming freshmen and their families, braved the July heat at Eisenhower Park in Denver to eat some Dickey's BBQ, enjoy some Blue Bell ice cream and wish Colorado's class of 2012 well in Aggieland. The DAMC also announced the appointment of Mr. Jim Reynolds as Director of the Denver A&M Club Board. Thanks to everyone for attending! In addition to socializing with fellow Aggies from the Denver area, the freshman and their families got the opportunity to meet other Ags and ask questions about what to expect at A&M. The DAMC awarded $3,750 in scholarships to very deserving freshmen from Colorado. With one semester behind them, we wish the class of 2012 the best of luck with their future endeavors!

Adams' background reflects a broad range of civic involvement and service to higher education and government. This experience includes his appointment to the United States Department of Commerce's Industry Trade Advisory Council (ITAC-11) for trade policy review, which he chaired from 2000-2005. Adams' leadership earned him multiple honors and awards including the U.S. Small Business Administration's National Exporter of the Year, for which he was recognized by President Ronald Reagan at a White House Rose Garden ceremony in May 1988.

Dr. Adams earned Ph.D., M.A., and B.A., degrees from Texas A&M University. While at Texas A&M, Dr. Adams was the Commanding Officer of Huslin 1 and a member of the Ross Volunteers. He went on to complete the Southwestern Graduate School of Banking at Southern Methodist University with honors and he holds Certified Economic Developer (CED) credentials. In addition to the books noted above, Dr. Adams has authored eight books on international trade, economic development and history.

Big 12 Update

The Rocky Mountain Big 12 Alumni Organization had two notable events during 2008. Both events give participants a chance to meet fellow Ags as well as other proud collegiate sports fans from across Denver. The DAMC was well represented at both events.

The first event, the third annual Big 12 Alumni Golf Tournament took place in June. The tournament was a sell-out once again in 2008 with all 12 schools being represented. This annual fund-raiser netted $6,000 for various scholarships throughout the Big 12. Each of the Big 12 schools receives an equal amount of the funds raised through the tournament.

In August, the Rocky Mountain Big 12 Alumni Organization held its second event - the third annual Alumni Happy Hour. There was a great turnout for this event as well. Nearly 300 participants from the Big 12, SEC and ACC schools were in attendance. The alumni happy hour takes place at LoDo's Bar and Grill across from Coors Field. This event is held prior to the Colorado Rockies alumni game. Those in attendance donned their school colors, mingled with other college football fans and took in a Rockies game.

The Rocky Mountain Big 12 Alumni Organization will have another exciting year in 2009. Watch the monthly DAMC e-newsletter for event details and plan to join in on the fun. Just don't forget to wear maroon!

Josh Bearden, Tamra Reynolds, Amy Smith, Carrie Pence, Teri Riggs, Jenny Krenek, Chris Busch, Mike Pallister and Chad Craft take in the Big 12 Alumni Golf Tournament.

Jessica Cavett, Scott Horton, and Jennifer Singer at a Football Watch Party.

Football Watch Parties

While the 2008 football season was one to forget in terms of wins and losses, the Denver A&M Club faithfully watched whether the Ags were the winners or were out-scored. The DAMC Watch Parties are a great time to get together, socialize and network with other Aggies. Typically about 50 members are in attendance at each of the Watch Parties. The biggest turnout for 2008 occurred during the Miami game. We had about 140 faithful Aggies show up to support the Ags and most even stayed to the bitter end (but we don't really want to remember).

The DAMC does not limit Watch Parties to football. We get together to watch Aggie basketball and the team is showing lots of promise in 2009. Those events are also held at LoDo's. Attendance for basketball games averages between 10 and 40. During NCAA tournament games the number of attendees has been as high as 80.

Whether we are watching football or basketball, the DAMC Watch Parties are a ton of fun. Come on out and join your fellow Ags for the 2009 watch parties. It is a great way to meet other Aggies in the Denver area. Check your monthly e-newsletters or the DAMC website for event dates and time. All watch parties are held at LoDo's Bar and Grill located at 20th and Market Street across from Coors Field. Check them out at www.lodosbarandgrill.com.

Aggie Football Team Coming to Boulder in '09

Mark your calendars! On November 7, 2009 your Fightin' Texas Aggie Football Team will be in Boulder, CO to take on the CU Buffaloes. The DAMC will be hosting yell practice, pre-game tailgating and much more! There will be plenty of Aggie Spirit to go around so don't miss out on this event. Mark your calendars now. More details will be announced soon so check the DAMC website regularly so you won't miss out on seeing Texas A&M take on CU at Folsom Field in Boulder.

The Year Ahead

Denver A&M Initiates New Website

In September 2009, the DAMC unveiled its new website: www.denveraggies.com. The website will now serve as the primary source for news to DAMC membership and those interested in the Club. As of February 2009, the weekly email newsletter will switch to monthly making www.denveraggies.com the primary source for the most current information on events and club news. The website offers information regarding club membership, a calendar of events, general information, a photo album and the Aggies in Business link.

The Membership link enables anyone interested to join the DAMC and allows for payment of membership dues on-line. Selecting the Events link provides a clickable current calendar of events sponsored by the DAMC. For information about DAMC scholarships, monthly and annual newsletters, club leadership, contact information, or to become a member of the e-mail list; just click on the Club Information link. The Aggies in Business link includes a directory, a job board and information about advertising. The website also provides a Pay/Donate/Buy link where you can pay for membership, buy club gear and event tickets and donate to the DAMC scholarship fund. The Photo Album page currently contains some TAMU images but will also be updated with DAMC event pictures as 2009 commences.

Take a few minutes and familiarize yourself with the new website today and sign up for e-mail, pay your membership dues, or advertise on the Aggies in Business page. Please contact any DAMC officer with questions or comments.

Aggies in Business

Since the release of the new Denver A&M Club website in September 2008, the DAMC has launched a function called Aggies in Business. The Aggies in Business link will serve as a way for local Aggies to advertise services or products to other Denver Aggies.

The Aggies in Business Link is an excellent way for members to reach out to their Aggie family here in the Denver area. Key businesses that may benefit from this link include: real estate agents, mortgage brokers, CPAs, doctors, attorneys, financial planners, consultants, etc.

Introductory pricing for this service includes a year of directory recognition for only $75! To maximize exposure on the new DenverAggies.com website, you can purchase the Maroon Package, which includes two months of home page advertising and one year of directory recognition for the low price of $150. Standard advertising policies do apply to all advertising. One year directory advertising is based on 365 days from the sign up date.

If this is something you or someone you know might be interested in, please contact our VPs of Publicity at vp-publicity@DenverAggies.com as soon as possible. The DAMC would love to provide a connection between local Aggies in Business and our members here in the Greater Denver area! Gig'em Ags!

Letter from the President

Amy C. Smith '05
President
Denver A&M Club

2008 President Tamra Reynolds and Jenny Krenek enjoy an Aggie football game.

2008 Muster Speaker, Joseph Tortorice, Jr. '70 and Sarah Spivey at Muster 2008

HOWDY AGS!

2008 was a great year! The Club continued to implement new initiatives and made real progress to reach out to our Colorado Aggies. This will be a great stepping stone for another incredible year in 2009.

WHAT'S BEHIND US

2008 was another great year! Tamra Reynolds, our former President continued to reach out to the Colorado Aggie Network by challenging herself and the Officer Team. The 2008 Officer Team stepped right in with an early event with the Women's Basketball Team where our DAMC members enjoyed a rare opportunity to spend an evening with the Lady Ags the night before they BTHO CU.

The 2008 Officer Team also emphasized efforts of reaching out to the Colorado Aggie Network by continuing to communicate any club news to local Ags through our Mile High Hullabaloo eNewsletters. Through these eNewsletters we continued to strengthen the network through our advertising program, which raised $1250 in 2008. Tamra also planned to expand this advertising program into an "Aggies in Business" link on the website, where Aggies can search through a database of other Aggies for goods and services. The 2009 officer team intends to take this idea and roll with it. If you have any questions about this, please contact our VP of Publicity or Business Chair (see Club Operations section).

A new DenverAggies.com website was launched in 2008 and should help facilitate up to date communication and our "Aggies in Business" section. If you have not had a chance to check it out, please do. If you have any comments or questions please contact our Web Chair (see Club Operations section).

2008 also saw several milestones. Some notable milestones included paid club memberships of 175 people and an email list of over 700 members. Also, we had a very successful Muster with more than 100 Ags in attendance. Our speaker was the founder of Jason's Deli, Joe Tortorice, Jr., '70. In conjunction with Muster, we raised about $2,000 from the silent auction. Another milestone for 2008 was the largest watch party in DAMC history. We had approximately 140 people at LoDo's to watch the Miami game and cheer on the Aggie Football team, despite their disappointing loss. Even more notable, and the main reason this club exists is that the DAMC awarded three scholarships in 2008. The deserving individuals were Hilary Nickerson ($1500), Maureen Wright ($1250), and Brandon Sims ($1000). They all started college at A&M last fall. WHOOP! (see page 2 for updates on our recipients) Club memberships and fundraising efforts allow the DAMC to give out scholarships to deserving students in Colorado.

WHAT'S BEFORE US

In 2009, I plan to keep the focus on strengthening the Aggie Network here in Colorado. Obviously, increasing membership helps us not only with networking, but also helps us fund our events and scholarships. I hope to raise awareness of what we do and our non-profit status in hopes of increasing our paid membership numbers this year. I also plan to expand on this with the "Aggies in Business" link on our website and continual updates making the website a one-stop shop for everything that is the Denver A&M Club. With this in mind, we are now going to switch to monthly eNewsletters and focus on having all updates, announcements, and events on DenverAggies.com. The website will continue to promote the DAMC as a welcoming group that is dedicated to upholding the traditions and characteristics that everyone expects from Aggies.

This year I would also like to focus on events. 2009 will be a huge year for Aggie sports in Colorado. Men's basketball will be here to take on CU in March and this will be just a warm up as the football team will be in Boulder in November to BTHO CU. The date of the game is set for November 7, 2009. The football game will be a very large event that will encompass several days to include Midnight Yell Practice and some sort of tailgate or tent event before the game. We will also have a silent auction where money raised will go directly back into our scholarship fund. Please invite your friends and family to join us for a Fightin' Texas A&M Football game Colorado style. Keep checking the website for more updates on both the basketball game and the football game.

FINALLY

I would like to thank the 2008 officer team for a job well done! I am looking forward to this upcoming year and am very excited about what we have coming up in 2009. I encourage everyone to join us for any club events. If you have any comments or suggestions for the officer team, don't hesitate to contact any one of us.

God Bless and Gig'Em,
