2013 Aggie Muster Speaker R. C. Slocum

R.C. Slocum is the winningest football coach in Texas A&M's history. After his last season at A&M in 2002, he had compiled a career record of 123-47-2 (.721). The 123 victories in his first 14 years ranks eighth all-time and puts him in the company of coaching legends such as Barry Switzer (137), Tom Osborne (137), Steve Spurrier (132), Joe Paterno (131), LaVell Edwards (129), Amos Alonzo Stagg (128), and Bud Wilkerson (124).

Slocum won six championships as head coach of the Aggies; three SWC titles, two Big 12 South Division titles, and the 1998 Big 12 Conference Championship. He was league Coach of the Year four times and was runner up for National Coach of the Year honors in 1994. His teams went to 11 bowl games with five of those being New Year's Day bowls. On 10 occasions, the Aggies, under Slocum, finished ranked in the AP Top 25 and three times finished in the Top Ten. During Slocum's tenure, the Aggies were especially hard to beat at home where they won .854 of their games at Kyle Field. At home, the Aggies compiled 22 and 29 game winning streaks. In conference play, A&M compiled a Southwest Conference record unbeaten streak of 29 games; four straight seasons without a loss. As Texas A&M closed out the Southwest Conference era, Slocum's winning percentage of .865 (44-6-2) was the best in league history besting the .797 percentage set by the legendary Darrel Royal of the University of Texas.

R.C. is a native of Orange, Texas where he

Call for Muster Silent Auction Items

Do you have anything you would like to donate for our Muster Silent Auction? Last year we raised over $1500 for our scholarship fund! Please help us do it again. All donations are TAX-DEDUCTIBLE and documentation is supplied. Past donations have included:

- Tickets to sporting events, theatre, ballet
- Autographed memorabilia - Aggie athletes are an extra big hit!
- Discounts, coupons or gift certificates for spas, haircuts, gyms and dining
- Free nights at luxury accommodations
- Snowboard, jewelry, etc.

Items less than $10 in value may be bundled together for auction purposes. Please contact Sarah Spivey at denver.aggie@gmail.com or 720.579.4920 if you are interested in donating to the silent auction. Proceeds from the auction benefit our scholarship fund, which helps Colorado high school students to attend Texas A&M.

Auction items on display at the 2008 Muster.

Opportunity Award Scholarship

Each year through the University's Opportunity Award Scholarship program, the Denver A&M Club awards scholarships to incoming freshmen that are residents within the Club's region. This year the Club will be giving out thousands of dollars in scholarships. The applicant pool determines the number of scholarships given and the amounts. The scholarship recipients are selected by the scholarship committee, which is made up of club officers. Applicants must reside within the Club's region and must be admitted to the University as freshmen for the Fall 2013 semester. For more information about the Opportunity Award Scholarship, please visit the Scholarship web page on the Texas A&M website at <https://scholarships.tamu.edu>. The 2014 scholarship recipients will be announced at the summer picnic.

Austin Bennett

As far as describing my first year at TAMU here goes: I wake up, I go to class, I do homework, I eat, I sleep some, I do it again. Taking engineering is bad enough. Taking 19 credit hours both semesters is awful. But my classes are worthwhile and I truly feel like I'm in, not necessarily an extended family, but at the very least the most tight knit of communities. Thank you.

Allison Burenheide

Howdy! My name is Allison Burenheide and I'm an Animal Science major from Grand Junction, CO but more importantly I'm a member of the Fightin' Texas Aggie class of 2016! This first semester has been full of challenges and amazing experiences! It was hard to be so far away from home and my family but it has gotten easier! I have become really involved in the Saddle and Sirloin club which is one of the biggest student organizations on campus! A lot of the students involved are Agriculture majors and we do a lot of agriculture based events and fundraisers. I have also become involved in Aggie Angels. This is an organization full of thirty girls who are like a student booster club for the men and women's basketball team. We attend all of the home games and cheer them on! We also get assigned buddies who we make posters and goodie bags for. We also raise money for charities. This year we contributed to Spalding, a foster care organization, and a charity that helps with Parkinsons disease. I was also involved in a Texas BBQ class which was so much fun! This semester has been amazing! I can't wait to see what is in store for the next couple of years! Thanks and Gig' Em!

Sydney Ritter

Since starting at A&M, I feel like I have really flourished. My first semester was great, but flew by! I earned a 4.0, went to every football game, and met a ton of new friends. There is always so much to do on campus- I have gotten involved with Freedom Movement and am currently training to be a fitness instructor at the Rec for next fall! My architecture classes have been challenging but enjoyable. I can't imagine being anywhere else at this time in my life, and my only fear is that the next three years will go by too fast! Thanks and Gig 'em!

Howdy Denver Aggies!

Looking Back

What an exciting year that the Denver A&M Club had in 2012!! I would like to thank the 2012 Officer Team for all of their hard work and dedication this past year. With their willingness we were able to reach out and extend our network of Aggies in the Denver Metro Area and offer events for Aggies to gather together and connect with new and old friends. The Denver A&M Club was able to triple our membership to finish the year with over 200 active members due to the amazing efforts of our officer team. This increase in our membership ensures that we will be able to continue awarding scholarships to local students heading to College Station in the fall and strengthen our presence in the Denver area. Our Watch Parties at the Fainting Goat were a huge success in our first year competing in the SEC. We averaged 115 Aggies at each game and filled the bar with over 230 Aggies for our Bowl game against OU. Other events that were a big success due to the efforts of the officer team included basketball watch parties, annual picnic, our first SEC picnic, Muster, Jazz in the Park, happy hours and Aggie Night at Coors Field and the holiday party. Thank you again to all the officer and chairs for your time, willingness to serve and great ideas that made 2012 such a great year for the Denver A&M Club.

I would like to also extend a huge thank you to our Board of Directors for their patience, guidance and support in my first year as the club president. Your willingness to help our officer team had such a positive impact on our sustainability as club and I appreciate all that you do to ensure our strong and growing presence in Denver.

What is Next

The 2013 officers are excited about strengthening our presence in the Denver area and continuing as a reliable resource for both existing and new aggies. Our hope will be to provide meaningful opportunities for Aggies to connect with new Ags as well as develop effective relationships with the community through volunteering and providing scholarships to future members of the class of 2017!

Like many officer teams before ours, we hope to strengthen the foundation of the Denver A&M club by maintaining our increasing member base. With our current numbers, the club hopes to offer larger and possibly more scholarships to future Aggies graduation from high school in the immediate Denver area. We will continue to organize local events to promote meaningful interactions among our Aggie family such as happy hours, watch parties, family gatherings, Muster, picnics and volunteer opportunities.

Finally,

I would like to extend an invitation all Aggies in the area to contact me with feedback on how the Denver A&M can better serve our family of former students living in the Mile High City. To be a successful club, we need grow in the direction of the needs those that we interact with. So please do not hesitate to contact myself or any of the 2013 officers.

Furthermore, I would like to extend a warm welcome to Aggies that recently call Denver their home and I look forward to meeting you soon. And to our current residents of Denver, Howdy and I cannot wait to see you again.

The Year In Review

Muster 2012 Recap

The 2012 Muster was great success for the Denver A&M Club.

Roger Creager made his Muster speaking debut with our club followed by an amazing concert dedicated to Muster.

With over 175 Denver Aggies in attendance, we were able to raise roughly $1,500 for our scholarship fund.

DAMC officers with Roger Creager at the 2012 Muster.

2012 Holiday Party

On December 15, 2012 about 25 Denver Aggies gathered at On The Border in Denver to celebrate the holiday season.

SEC Picnic

The Denver A&M Club made it's first appearance at the Annual SEC Picnic. We were welcomed by all the alumni with excitement and well wishes for our first season competing in the SEC.

Watch Parties

This year was by far an exciting year for Aggie Football! The excitement was reflected by the attendance at each of Watch Parties. As the season progressed, attendance steadily increased until it literally burst The Fainting Goat at its seams during the Alabama Beatdown. Next year is going to be an exciting year as our Aggies are currently ranked #1 in the preseason polls!

Annual Aggie Picnic

The 2012 Denver A&M Annual Picnic brought roughly 65 Aggies together at Eishenhower Park on June 23, 2012. The club awarded four scholarships to Freshmen heading to A&M in the Fall of 2012! The addition of Rudy's BBQ to the picnic was such a special treat! Thanks Steve White for picking up the BBQ in Colorado Springs for us!

Membership Recruitment

Membership dues help our great club sponsor key events like Muster, the summer picnic, and our holiday party. Proceeds help Aggies here in Colorado with attend A&M thru our scholarship programs. Our goal for 2013 is to reach 300 memberships. If you have not joined the club yet or renewed for 2013, we need your help...Sign up today!

Upcoming Events

This year, the Denver A&M club will continue to host Basketball Watch Parties, Happy Hours, a Summer Picnic, Football Watch Parties, and our annual Christmas Party. We will also host various other events around town and throughout the year. For the most up-to-date information, be sure to check out our website (denveraggies.com), join the Facebook page (“Texas A&M Club of Denver”), or join our list serve.

Networking

Denver is home to hundreds of Aggies of all ages and interests. This year we are planning events designed for specific groups of Aggies with common interests. Be sure to look for details on these exciting events as they are released.

Upcoming Events

Happy Hours

This year the Denver A&M club will be hosting Happy Hours on the first Thursday of each month around Denver. The Happy Hours will be hosted at different locations to hopefully make it easier for people attend. We aim to have them at different local breweries within the Denver area with the first one to be at the Breckenridge Brewery off Blake St. on Feb 7th, 2013.

Summer Picnic

Join us for our summer picnic on June 29th, 2013. There will be BBQ, games, networking, and we will announce our scholarship recipients. Details will be announced on the website.

Watch Parties

Watch parties for basketball and football will be held at The Fainting Goat (846 Broadway, Denver, CO 80203). Join us for Shiner beer, raffles, and food specials as we cheer on the Aggies as we continue to Beat the Hell Outta our Southeastern Conference opponents!!! E-vites will be sent out prior to each game.

Christmas Party

Our annual Christmas Party will be held on December 15, 2013. Join us for dinner and holiday festivities. Location and additional details to be determined.

Denver Texas Aggie Moms

The Denver Aggie Moms Club continues to grow and thrive; providing friendship, support, encouragement, and assistance for mothers of students and former students of Texas A&M University in Colorado. We also educate club members in the traditions and history of Texas A&M.

Here are some highlights of 2012 for the Denver Aggie Moms Club:

- We started the year by reaching out to the family of Caleb Jentsch '13 following his skiing accident. Our moms collected needed items, gift cards, and cash for his family. Several officers presented these items to Deborah Jentsch '81 on behalf of the Denver Aggie Moms Club.
- Our members donated $800.00 toward the new Aggie Moms Room which opened on June 1, 2012 in the newly renovated Memorial Student Center.
- Our members continued to faithfully use their King Soopers reloadable gift cards to earn money for our club treasury and for book scholarships for our Aggie students. In 2013, a percentage of the proceeds from the gift cards will go to our club treasury with the majority going to TAMU Student Organizations.
- At each club meeting we sign birthday cards for any students and former students with upcoming birthdays and share "Aggie Brags" about our Aggie students and former students. We have an incredible group of Aggies from the state of Colorado!
- At many of our meetings we do a small craft together led by our Meetings Vice-President.
- Twice a year (in April and in November) our members bring items for "goody bags" to be mailed to their students before their spring and fall finals. We have some creative moms and some happy students!
- At Parents' Weekend in April, our Co-President Brenda Salinas '81 received a certificate of recognition on behalf of Denver Aggie Moms Club. We were honored for our 68.8% increase in membership from the 2010/2011 year to the 2011/2012 year.
- A group from Denver Aggie Moms Club attended the 2012 Aggie Muster and the Roger Creager concert together at the Grizzly Rose.
- Our Co-President Marsha Shaffer led us in the celebration of our nine graduates and their moms at a banquet at Pappadeaux in May. Those honored were Mark Godsey '11, Emily Heston '12, Hilary Ann Nickerson '12, Andrew Petering '12, Brandon Sims '12, Ryan Smith '12, Stephanie Wells '12, Maureen Wright '12, and Charles Zheng '12. Each graduate was given a Ring Crest paperweight with his/her class year as a gift from Denver Aggie Moms Club. At our May meeting we also enjoyed a beautiful scrapbook assembled by Mitzi Titzer '85, Debbie Perez, and Linda Breedlove of our 2011/2012 club year.
- In June, we had our first ever Officers' Retreat overnight at the Park Hyatt Resort in Beaver Creek. In addition to our Aggie Mom fellowship, we worked hard revising our bylaws, scholarship guidelines, and many other club documents along with planning our calendar for the year.

2012 Financial Review

was an All-District end at Stark High School. He attended college at McNeese State University in Lake Charles, La. There, he was a four year letterman and set school records for receiving as an end. Following his senior season he was named Most Valuable Lineman. R.C. received his undergraduate degree from McNeese and was a member of Blue Key National Honor Fraternity. He also received a Master of Education Administration. In 2002, he was recognized as a Distinguished Alumnus and in 2003 was inducted into the McNeese Athletic Hall of Fame.

Lake Charles High School, in 1968, was the first stop in R.C.'s coaching career. He was there two seasons before moving to Kansas State University where he coached the 70 and 71 seasons. In 1972, R.C. started a long association with Texas A&M as an offensive assistant with new head coach Emory Bellard. In 1973, he moved over to the defensive side of the ball as defensive ends coach. Later he would coach the linebackers and become defensive coordinator for the 79 and 80 seasons. The next stop, in 1981, was the University of Southern California where R.C. was the defensive coordinator under John Robinson. Slocum's defense led the Pac-10 Conference that year and the team played in the Fiesta Bowl. In 1982, R.C. returned to Texas A&M as defensive coordinator with new head coach Jackie Sherrill. Prior to the 1985 season, Slocum was promoted to Assistant Head Coach. That season saw the Aggies lead the SWC in defense and win the conference championship. The first of three straight championships and foundation of the reckless style of defensive play that later led A&M's defense to be called the "Wrecking Crew". In 1989, R.C. Slocum was named head football coach at Texas A&M

He coached in the East/West Shrine All Star game, the Japan Bowl, and the Hula Bowl and has been involved in many charities including the Children's Miracle Network, the Peaceable Kingdom Retreat for Children, the Houston Live Stock Show and Rodeo, and Special Olympics. R.C. has also served as a Trustee of the American Football Coaches Association and is currently the President of the American Football Coaches Foundation. Since 2002, R.C. has served as a Special Advisor to the President of Texas A&M. In February 2006, Coach Slocum was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame. In 2012, he was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame and was selected to be a member of the Horatio Alger Association of Distinguished Americans. His hobbies include golf, horseback riding, hunting and fishing.

Slocum is married to the former Nel Jennings and has two sons, Shawn Slocum, an assistant football coach with the Green Bay Packers and John Harvey Slocum, who is in the oil field services business. Nel has a son, Randy Jennings who is a senior geology major at Texas A&M.

- President Marsha Shaffer hosted us in July for a "Bevo BBQ" at her home for all area Aggie students, including many incoming freshmen, and their families. All new Aggie Moms are given a "Howdy Bag" which includes a Freshman Survival Guide with many helpful tips from our moms and students.
- Cherry Bull '86 worked hard on our new Denver Aggie Moms Club website which is denveraggie moms.aggienetwork.com.
- In November, we collected phone cards and Visa and MasterCard gift cards in the amount of $435.00 for Whoop! for Troops, a service project coordinated by MSC LEAD. We also gathered at the home of Cherry '86 and Robert Bull '85 to watch the Aggies BTHO Sam Houston State.
- We ended 2012 with our most popular meeting of the year, a Christmas ornament exchange at the home of our President Marsha Shaffer. This annual event is a Denver Aggie Moms Club tradition.
- We've had a strong start to 2013 watching the Aggies win big over the Sooners in the Cotton Bowl at the home of Lesli Bishop '92. Our Aggie students and families joined us for this annual family social event over the Christmas break.
