Aggie Muster Day

We gather here to mark the day Aggies proudly stand.
 To honor those who've gone before to the promised land.
 Each name is called upon the roll, comrades answer "Here."
 Trumpets sound their sad good-bye to those we held so dear.
 All heads are bowed in silent pledge never to forget.
 While rifles fire their last salute echoes answer yet.
 To their mem'ry we'll be true; we will take their place.
 One for all and all for one ever in Thy grace.
 We'll meet again another day, reunion while we pray
 To ask Thy blessing on each one on this Muster day,
 Aggie Muster Day. – Mrs. Earl (Margaret) Rudder

Opportunity Award Scholarship

Each year through the University's Opportunity Award Scholarship program, the Denver A&M Club awards scholarships to incoming freshmen that are residents within the Club's region. This year the Club will be giving out thousands of dollars in scholarships. The applicant pool determines the number of scholarships given and the amounts. The scholarship recipients are selected by the scholarship committee, which is made up of club officers. Applicants must reside within the Club's region and must be admitted to the University as freshmen for the Fall 2014 semester. For more information about the Opportunity Award Scholarship, please visit the Texas A&M University Financial Aid Office. The 2014 scholarship recipients will be announced at the summer picnic.

Howdy! Life at A&M has so far been really fantastic. I'm a mechanical engineering major and in the Corps of Cadets. I'm in my second semester here, and the first one was really great. It ended on a very good note; I finished with a 3.62. I also played soccer on the traveling Corps soccer team, and played in the concert band. I've really enjoyed the traditions such as Bonfire and Midnight Yell. Texas A&M has been great, and I'm extremely glad I made the decision to come here and get the unique experience offered in the Corps. This semester, I plan on playing the intramural sport Battleship, where teams in canoes paddle around in the rec center pool and use buckets to fill each other's canoes with water to sink the battleships. Thanks and Gig 'Em!

Howdy! My name is Troy Branigan and I am from Littleton, Colorado. I have really enjoyed my first semester here at Texas A&M in my major of Civil Engineering. Although it was very demanding, after a lot of hard work I was able to receive a 4.0. Some of my highlights from last semester would be meeting tons of new people and attending all of the Aggie football games and yell practices. I also enjoyed playing both intramural soccer and tennis and became involved in many of the great things St. Mary's Catholic Center has to offer. Finally, I enjoyed doing recreational activities with my dorm such as Ultimate Frisbee Fridays. I couldn't have been happier with my decision to attend Texas A&M and am very thankful for my Denver A&M Club Scholarship I received. Thanks and Gig 'em!

The Year In Review

Muster 2013 Recap

On April 21, 2013, 230 Denver Aggies gathered to Muster at the Denver Masonic Event Center to hear R.C. Slocum speak about the Aggie Spirit, Aggie Football and the reach of the Aggie Family.

The silent auction raised approximately $3,000 towards our scholarship fund benefiting future Aggies from the Denver area.

Annual Aggie Picnic

The 2013 Denver A&M Annual Picnic brought roughly 55 Aggies together at Alamo Placita Park on June 29, 2013. The club awarded three scholarships to Freshmen heading to A&M in the Fall of 2013!

Watch Parties

Last year was a roller coaster of a ride for Aggie Football, with an exciting win over Duke in the Chick-fil-A Bowl. The Alabama game drew record turn-out with over 260 Aggies at the Fainting Goat. While Johnny football will be dearly missed, we are excited to see the team take the field this fall.

Watch parties will start back up Thursday August 28 against the South Carolina Game Cocks.

SEC Picnic

The 2013 SEC Picnic was a huge success for the SEC Club of Denver with over 900 members from all of the SEC clubs in Denver. The Denver Aggies had one of the strongest presences with just under 100 Aggies.

2013 Holiday Party

On December 15, 2013 about 25 Denver Aggies gathered at Hacienda Restaurant in Denver to celebrate the holiday season

Membership Recruitment

Membership dues help our great club sponsor key events like Muster, the summer picnic, and our holiday party. Proceeds help Aggies here in Colorado with attend A&M thru our scholarship programs. Denver Aggies Moms Club

The Denver Aggie Moms Club continues to grow and thrive; providing friendship, support, encouragement, and assistance for mothers of students and former students of Texas A&M University in Colorado. We also educate club members in the traditions and history of Texas A&M. For 2013/2014 the Denver Aggie Moms Club currently has an active membership of 25.

Here are some highlights for 2013 for the Denver Aggie Moms Club:

- We started 2013 by watching the Aggies win big over the Sooners in the Cotton Bowl at the home of Lesli Bishop '92. Our Aggie students and families joined us for this annual family social event over the Christmas break. We even had yell practice led by TAMU-Galveston yell leader Nick Tealer '14.
- Our members continued to faithfully use their King Soopers reloadable gift cards to earn money for donations for TAMU Student Organizations and income for our club treasury.

In May 2013 we awarded seven $250.00 donations totaling $1,750.00 to the following TAMU

Student Organizations which were selected by our winning members:

- Alpha Chi Omega Sorority selected by Marsha Shaffer
- CARPOOL selected by Gail Wells
- IMPACT selected by Deborah Coburn '82
- Ross Volunteer Company selected by Brenda Lueders '83
- S-1 Spartans selected by Cherry Bull '86
- Society for Creative Anachronism selected by Mitzi Titzer '85
- Society of Mechanical Engineers selected by Mary Gay '79
- At each club meeting we sign birthday cards for any students and former students with upcoming birthdays and share "Aggie Brags" about our Aggie students and former students. We have an incredible group of Aggies from the state of Colorado!

2013 Financial Review

Kyle Field Renovation

As most of you know, our beloved gridiron is undergoing a huge renovation. Since 1904, Kyle Field has been "Home of the 12th Man." In the name of upholding the finest collegiate facilities creating the greatest venue in the history of college football, construction began in November 2013. Already, the first deck on the east side has been demolished, new concrete pillars for the south end zone addition has been poured, and a new northeast tower has been constructed. In time for football season 2015, Kyle Field will have undergone an incredible transformation.

Now that is the Aggie pride we all know and love! Did you know Kyle Field has been ranked one of the most intimidating college football stadiums in the nation? And according to CBS Sportsline, we have a perfect score in three categories-- tradition, atmosphere, and of course our fans. This renovation will not only amplify and honor our past and our traditions, but expand the intimidation factor. The new Kyle Field will seat 102,500 people, 20,000 more than current capacity. Also, the field has been lowered 7 feet, and relocated 18 feet south. Now, who is ready for some Fightin' Texas Aggie football?

- At many of our meetings we do a small craft together led by our Meetings Vice-President.
- Twice a year (in April and in November) our members bring items for "goody bags" to be mailed to their students before their spring and fall finals. We have some creative moms and some happy students!
- A group from Denver Aggie Moms Club attended the 2013 Aggie Muster together to hear Muster Speaker Coach R.C. Slocum.
- Our 2012/2013 President Marsha Shaffer led us in the celebration of our five May 2013 graduates and their parents at a banquet at Pappadeaux in late April. Those honored were Matt Lueders '13, Michelle Shaffer '13, Colby Smith '13, Mariah Bastin '14, and Isabel Salinas '14. Each graduate was given a Ring Crest paperweight with his/her class year as a gift from Denver Aggie Moms Club. At this meeting we also enjoyed a beautiful scrapbook assembled by Historian Carol Edwards of our 2012/2013 club year. • During the summer months our Denver Aggie Moms occasionally gather at a local restaurant for lunch and Aggie Mom fellowship.
- Mitzi Titzer '85 and Debra Perez hosted us in July at Centennial Center Park for a summer social for all area Aggie students, including many incoming freshmen, and their families. All new Aggie Moms are given a "Howdy Bag" which includes a Freshman Survival Guide with many helpful tips from our moms and students.
- We also gathered at the home of Terry and Paul Sacco to watch the Aggies take on Alabama.
- We ended 2013 with our most popular meeting of the year, a Christmas ornament exchange hosted for the fifth year at the home of Marsha Shaffer. This annual event is a Denver Aggie Moms Club tradition.
