2007 Aggie Muster Speaker

Dr. Joe Townsend '67 Associate Dean for Students
College of Agriculture and Life Sciences
Texas A&M University

As Associate Dean in the College of Ag and Life Sciences at Texas A&M University, Dr. Joe Townsend has made a career out of helping students succeed. Dr. Townsend teaches over 2,000 students annually in addition to serving as the University Scholarship Chair with the task of overseeing a $400 million scholarship endowment. He is also the recipient of numerous awards from The Association of Former Students, including the University Teaching Award and the University Student Relations Award.

Dr. Townsend grew up in McAllen, Texas, and received his bachelor degree from Texas A&M. Later he earned a Ph.D. from Iowa State University in Ames, Iowa. Dr. Townsend also spent three years teaching at Iowa State University and another three years teaching at Illinois State University before returning to Texas A&M in 1984. Dr. Townsend and his wife, Dr. Chris Townsend, live in College Station, Texas.

Proposed Bylaw Change

At the December 10, 2006 Club Christmas Party, a motion was made and seconded to change the Club's financial calendar. Currently the financial calendar for the Club runs from summer picnic to summer picnic. The proposed bylaw change would change the Club's current financial calendar to follow the calendar year, from January to December. This would coincide with the officer terms, and be beneficial to the Club for tax reporting purposes. Upon approval by the Board of Directors, the Club will vote on this motion at our Muster ceremony on April 21, 2007. Copies of the language change will be provided at Muster prior to voting. Should you have any questions regarding this bylaw change, please contact Chris Busch at President@DenverAggies.com.

Jason Morris, Scott Horton and Josh Dyer enjoy a Football Watch Party at Lodo's.

Call for Muster Silent Auction Items

Do you have anything you would like to donate for our Muster Silent Auction? All donations are TAX-DEDUCTIBLE (we'll supply documentation). Our most popular items last year were:

- Tickets to sporting events, theatre, ballet
- Autographed memorabilia (Aggie athletes are an extra big hit!)
- Discounts, coupons or gift certificates (spa-type services, dining, etc.)

- Free nights at luxury accommodations (Time-share weekend, mountain cabin, etc.)

Items less than $10 in value may be bundled together for auction purposes. Please contact Sarah Jones at musterchair@DenverAggies.com if you are interested in donating to the silent auction. Proceeds benefit our scholarship fund, which allows Colorado high school students to attend A&M.

Membership Update

Last year the Denver A&M Club tripled its membership in a span of about three months to become the largest A&M club outside of Texas with over 220 members by October 2005. This year the club was faced with the difficult task of maintaining membership growth. While the membership totals have fallen off slightly, the club is still going strong with over 200 members as of December. However, the Club's e-mail list continued to increase in size with over 570 members on the list.

Opportunity Award Scholarship

Each year through the University's Opportunity Award Scholarship program, the Denver A&M Club awards scholarships to incoming freshmen who are residents within the Club's region. This year the Club will be giving out thousands of dollars in scholarships. The number of scholarships given and the amounts will be determined by the applicant pool. The scholarship recipients will be selected by the scholarship committee made up of Club officers. Applicants must be an incoming fall 2007 freshman and must be a resident within the Club's region. For more information about the Opportunity Award Scholarship, please visit the Scholarship webpage on the Texas A&M website at <https://scholarships.tamu.edu>. The 2007 scholarship recipients will be announced at the summer picnic.

Summer Picnic and Officer Elections

Rain or shine, the Aggie War Hymn is always a favorite at Club gettogethers.

At the annual Club picnic in July, 35 folks braved the inclement weather to meet up at Cuernavaca Park. Though the Kickball Extravaganza was cancelled due to rain, the folks who came out enjoyed Dickey's BBQ, shared Old Army stories, and conducted a little Club business.

Our current officer team was elected and took office immediately. A bylaw change was also adopted at the picnic by a unanimous vote of the members. The new bylaw changed the officer terms from running picnic to picnic following the calendar, January - December. This resulted in the newly elected officers serving a short six month term before the elections at the annual Christmas party.

Robert Earl Keen at the Fillmore Auditorium

On August 12, Denver Aggies gathered at the Fillmore Auditorium for a Robert Earl Keen concert. Keen, a fellow Aggie (class of '80) and well-known Texas Country singer, was kind enough to donate a number of autographed items including T-shirts, caps, framed photos, backstage meet-and-greet passes, and CDs for a silent auction. Proceeds from the auction exceeded $600 and went to benefit the scholarship fund. After the concert, Keen joined us for a picture with our Aggie flag, which was submitted to the Association of Former Students. This photograph can be seen on page 16 of the January-February issue of the Texas Aggie magazine.

The Denver Aggies enjoyed a night out on the town watching the Robert Earl Keen concert at the Fillmore Auditorium.

Freshman Send-off and Ice Cream Social

On Sunday, August 13th, eight area freshman of the Fighting Texas Aggie Class of 2010, along with their families, joined us at Observatory Park near the DU campus for a freshman send-off. Blue Bell ice cream (donated by Russell Stover Candy on Colorado Boulevard) with all the fixings were enjoyed by all. This event provided the freshman and their families the opportunity to meet other Aggies as well as ask questions about Aggieland. With one semester behind them, we wish the Class of 2010 the best of luck!

Josh Bearden, a fellow Denver Aggie, and Katie Mullen, a sophomore at Texas A&M, enjoy some Blue Bell ice cream at the Ice Cream Social in August.

Big 12 Happy Hour
& Colorado Rockies
Alumni Night

We always knew Aggies were one big happy family, but the turnout at the Big 12 Happy Hour at Lodo's on August 25 confirmed that we get along with alumni from other universities just as well. Thanks to Chuck Bradley for spearheading the first annual All Big 12 Happy Hour. The event was a HUGE success with more than 300 in attendance from not only Big 12, but ACC and SEC schools as well. A&M, t.u., Texas Tech, OU, K-State, Nebraska, CSU, CU, Georgia, Tennessee, Virginia Tech, UVA, OSU and alumni from several other schools were out in full-force proudly wearing their school colors for an evening of mingling, socializing, and friendly banter before heading over to the Colorado Rockies Alumni Night at Coors Field. Next year we'll make the event a Big 12/SEC/ACC Happy Hour and aim for an even larger turnout.

Aggies enjoy Big 12 Happy Hour with other university alumni on the roof-top of Lodo's downtown.

2006 Football Watch Parties

This past fall the Club hosted football watch parties for all televised Aggie games at Lodo's Bar & Grill downtown. On average, we had about 50 Denver Aggies at the parties. At each game, every club member present received raffle tickets, and dozens of Aggie-themed schwag was raffled off. At several of the parties we implemented the new Kids Corner, an area which is an area full of children's activities for parents to enjoy with their children while watching the game. For the Missouri watch party, the Club organized the first Aggies Can food drive, and Denver Aggies donated 650 cans to the Food Bank of the Rockies. For the donor's efforts, $250 gift certificates to Best Buy and Cherry Creek mall were raffled off to two lucky winners. A special thanks goes out to Jennifer Untermeyer for coordinating the Kid's Corner and the Aggie Can Food Drive. We also sold 150 maroon 2006 Club T-shirts during football season.

Football watch Parties at Lodo's were very well attended for every game and the Kids Corner was a huge hit with the little guys!

Christmas Party

The Annual Club Christmas party on December 10 at On the Border was a great time complete with a chicken and steak fajita buffet and top-notch service. A ticket raffle resulted in the award of multiple prizes such as Aggie ornaments, designer pens, caps, baby items, and collapsible coolers. Santa even made a surprise appearance, handing out gifts and candy canes to the numerous children in attendance. Members were encouraged to bring toys to be donated to Toys for Tots. Approximately 30 toys were collected and donated through this event.

A&M vs. CU Basketball Game

On January 13, the top-ranked men's basketball team played Richard Roby and the CU Buffs at the Coors Event Center in Boulder. The Denver A&M Club organized a group trip to the game. Tickets in the A&M 'block' just behind the Aggie bench sold for $18 and many chose to meet up at The Sink, a local Boulder-area bar, to "Bargate" prior to the event. Over 100 Denver Aggies turned out to cheer the Ags to an 87-69 victory over the Buffs.

Letter from the President

Denver A&M Club

*Scott Horton, Josh Bearden and

HOWDY AGSI

Another great year is behind us. Volunteering my time with the Denver A&M Club is truly a labor of love. Not because I get to write long letters for a newsletter, but because of the people that surround me, from the officers to the members. I have been involved in the club here in Denver for the past eight years and have seen the club go through many transformations; the interest in the club is at its highest level since I have lived here.

CURRENT STATE

What made 2006, such a great year are the members. The club isn't a club without Aggies in the Denver area becoming members. Not only does this fund our club operations and provide for scholarships, it also gives us a marker in which to measure ourselves against other clubs. To date we remain the largest A&M Club outside the state of Texas. This is a testament to all the hard work the officers have put in over the past couple of years. Growing the Aggie Network is always a goal of this club, and the social network grew with leaps and bounds this past year. We introduced a new e-mail distribution group for Aggies in the Denver area to easily socialize and plan events together outside of the normal club activities. As new Aggies arrive in the area, the Social List offers them an easy place to plug into the network and get involved right away.

This past year, the officer group had the great idea of implementing a weekly e-newsletter called the Mile High Hullabaloo. Thanks to our VPs of Publicity Tamra Reynolds and Nicole Pitts for their help with this important project. Each week the club receives e-mails from Aggies wishing to send messages to the club's main e-mail distribution list, including everything from Aggies selling a house to Aggies on the job hunt. We have always struggled with what to do with these e-mails. On one hand we did not want to flood our members with e-mails everyday, and on the other hand we wanted to grow the Aggie Network by fostering communication between our members. The Mile High Hullabaloo is an excellent solution. I hope everybody makes the time to read through newsletter each week; remember, you can post anytime by sending an e-mail to mydenveraggies@yahoo.com.

We have also implemented a new advertising program as part of the e-newsletter. Ads from fellow Denver A&M Club members are interspersed throughout the e-newsletter, allowing several advertisers to purchase space in a single newsletter. This will increase the ad revenue for the club and give fellow Aggies the opportunity to network their business to fellow members in Denver. The proceeds from this revenue will go to general club operating expenses and our scholarship fund. If you are interested in promoting your business in the Mile High Hullabaloo, please contact vppublicity@denveraggies.com for more information.

In 2005, the Denver A&M Club became one of a handful of A&M clubs to gain a 501(c)(3) status with the IRS. This has given greater flexibility in our fundraising efforts, and in 2006 we were able to take advantage of our new status. In late July, we were approached by the management company for the famous Texas singer/song writer Robert Earl Keen '80 (REK). They wanted the club to promote his show and in return they would help us with a silent auction before the show. REK donated several albums, shirts, and personally signed them backstage after the concert. Because these exciting items were available for bidding, the effort helped the club raise $600. Thanks so much to VP of Publicity

Tamra Reynolds for coordinating the event. You can see the photo of the Denver Aggies with REK at the concert in the January issue of the Texas Aggie magazine.

Efforts like these that will allow us to continue to give scholarships to deserving high school students in the Denver area. In 2006, we gave one of the biggest scholarships in club history. Ashura Noles received a $4,000 scholarship from the Denver A&M club. The scholarships provided by the club will go a long way to help students pay for out-of-state tuition.

I would like to extend a special thank you to all of the club officers. Without you, my job as president would be impossible. You are the engine that makes this club go forward. I would also like to encourage everybody to get involved in our club; it will be an experience you will enjoy. And a big thank you goes out to my right-hand girl Adrienne Tuck, President Elect, who helps me stay on track with all that needs to be done.

THE FUTURE

The ongoing mission of this club is to strengthen the Aggie Network; and the challenge we face every year is to increase the Family Network. Again in 2007, we will be focusing on bringing more families into the Denver A&M Club. I want 2007 to be the year of the family. Jennifer Singer and Scott Horton, our VPs of Activities, have a great line-up of events for families this year, and I encourage those Aggies with young ones to come out and join other families in the fun events we have planned. Also in 2007, we want to continue to grow on the success of fundraising efforts from 2006 and grow our business network. We will be looking for silent auction opportunities like the REK concert to help meet our fundraising goals. We want more businesses to get involved in networking events too.

CLOSING

Over the past eight years the A&M Club has been a big part of my life, and I would not be who I am today if it were not for the friends I made through the club. If you have not taken the time to come out to one of our events, I encourage you to join us and possibly make some lifelong friends. Let's make 2007 the best year yet.

Thanks & Gig 'Em,

Chris Busch '94
